St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran Church
Wilton, WI
Fifth Sunday in Lent

Inviting People to Journey with Christ's Family in Spreading God's Love and Mercy

Our God makes all things new. In the first reading God promises it. In the gospel Mary anticipates it, anointing Jesus' feet with costly perfume in preparation for the day of his burial. In the second reading Paul recalls his transformation from the persecutor Saul into an apostle. In baptism, God's new person (you!) rises daily from the deadly mire of trespasses and sins.

Prelude....A time for silent reflection

Confession and Forgiveness

In the name of God,
who makes a way in the wilderness,
walks with us,
and guides us in our pilgrimage.

Amen.

Holy One,

we confess that we have wandered far from you:
we have not trusted your promises,
we have ignored your prophets in our own day,
we have squandered our inheritance of grace,
we have failed to recognize you in our midst.
Have mercy on us!
Forgive us and turn us again to you.
Teach us to follow in your ways,
assure us again of your love,
and help us to love our neighbor.
Amen.

Beloved in Christ,
the Word draws near to you,
and all who call out to God shall be saved.
In Jesus, God comes to you again and again
and gathers you under wings of love.
In ✝ Jesus' name, your sins are forgiven.
God journeys with you and teaches you how to live in love.
Amen.

We have placed an insert in today's bulletin. Please consider making a personal gift to Lutheran Disaster Response. You may send your gift directly or, if you prefer, make your check payable to St. Paul's and we'll send a lump sum under St. Paul's name. Your gift will also be entered in our records for tax purposes.

CHICKEN DINNER FUNDRAISER

We will be sponsoring a drive-up chicken dinner on Sunday, April 24. Jamie Thomas will again prepare the barbeque chicken and we'll serve the usual potato salad, beans, cranberry sauce, and dinner roll. The cost will be $10.00/plate. The church council approved the profit from the dinner to be designated to the cemetery maintenance account. We need your help in selling tickets, not just buying one for yourself and family members. Word

God speaks to us in scripture reading, preaching, and song.^

First Reading

The prophet declares that long ago God performed mighty deeds and delivered Israel from Egyptian bondage through the waters of the sea. Now, God is about to do a new thing, bringing the exiles out of Babylon and through the wilderness in a new Exodus.

Isaiah 43:16-21

¹⁶Thus says the LORD,
 who makes a way in the sea,
 a path in the mighty waters, ¹⁷who brings out chariot and horse,
 army and warrior;
 they lie down, they cannot rise,
 they are extinguished, quenched like a wick:
¹⁸Do not remember the former things,
 or consider the things of old.
¹⁹I am about to do a new thing;
 now it springs forth, do you not perceive it?
 I will make a way in the wilderness
 and rivers in the desert.
²⁰The wild animals will honor me,
 the jackals and the ostriches;
 for I give water in the wilderness,
 rivers in the desert,
 to give drink to my chosen people,
²¹the people whom I formed for myself
 so that they might declare my praise.

Psalm 126

¹When the LORD restored the fortunes of Zion,
 then were we like those who dream.
²Then was our mouth filled with laughter, and our tongue with shouts of joy.
Then they said among the nations, “The LORD has done great things for them.”
³The LORD has done great things for us,
 and we are glad indeed.
⁴Restore our fortunes, O LORD,
like the watercourses of the Negeb.
⁵Those who sowed with tears
 will reap with songs of joy.
⁶Those who go out weeping, carrying the seed,
will come again with joy, shouldering their sheaves.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

EASTERN EUROPE CRISIS

Since the beginning of the war in Ukraine on Feb. 24, the Ukrainian people have fled their country. Civilians fleeing the violence are heading toward Ukraine's western districts and such neighboring countries as Poland, Moldova, Slovakia, Romania and Hungary. Ukrainian men of military age (18-60) are required to stay in the country, so most of those fleeing the violence are women and children. According to one report of the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees, more than 3 million people are seeking refuge in neighboring countries. There are major humanitarian concerns for both internally displaced people and refugees. Many of these Ukrainians fleeing their homes need shelter and such basic necessities as food, water and toiletries. Care for people also includes pastoral and psychological support to address the trauma they've endured.

Lutheran Disaster Response is accompanying their companion churches in Ukraine, Hungary, Poland and Slovakia, as well as such ecumenical partners as the Lutheran World Federation and Church World Service, in their humanitarian responses to the crisis. These partners provide refugees with immediate support and supplies such as food, blankets, water and hygiene kits.

The church council voted to send $3,000.00 to Lutheran Disaster Response, specifically earmarked for "Easter Europe Crisis Response". The ladies of the W-ELCA voted to donate $500.00. The gifts will be used in full (100%) for direct response to assist those affected.

You watch over our going out and our coming in: bless this time of ending and beginning.

You surround your people in every time and place:
keep us close in your love.

You accompany your people in times of joy and times of trial:
prosper all that has been done to your glory in this time together.
Heal and forgive all that has fallen short of your will for us.

Help Pastor Cathleen Morris and all of us to live with courage and gladness in the future you give to us. As she has been a blessing to us, so now send her forth to be a blessing to others, through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord.

Amen

Second Reading

Writing to Christians in Philippi, Paul admits that his heritage and reputation could give him more reason than most people to place confidence in his spiritual pedigree. But the overwhelming grace of God in Jesus calls Paul to a new set of values.

Philippians 3:4b-14

[Paul writes:] ^{4b}If anyone else has reason to be confident in the flesh, I have more: ⁵circumcised on the eighth day, a member of the people of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, a Hebrew born of Hebrews; as to the law, a Pharisee; ⁶as to zeal, a persecutor of the church; as to righteousness under the law, blameless.

⁷Yet whatever gains I had, these I have come to regard as loss because of Christ. ⁸More than that, I regard everything as loss because of the surpassing value of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord. For his sake I have suffered the loss of all things, and I regard them as rubbish, in order that I may gain Christ ⁹and be found in him, not having a righteousness of my own that comes from the law, but one that comes through faith in Christ, the righteousness from God based on faith. ¹⁰I want to know Christ and the power of his resurrection and the sharing of his sufferings by becoming like him in his death, ¹¹if somehow I may attain the resurrection from the dead.

¹²Not that I have already obtained this or have already reached the goal; but I press on to make it my own, because Christ Jesus has made me his own. ¹³Beloved, I do not consider that I have made it my own; but this one thing I do: forgetting what lies behind and straining forward to what lies ahead, ¹⁴I press on toward the goal for the prize of the heavenly call of God in Christ Jesus.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation "Return to the Lord, your God" ELW p. 151

GOSPEL READING

Judas willfully misinterprets as waste Mary's extravagant act of anointing Jesus' feet with costly perfume. Jesus recognizes that her lavish gift is both an expression of love and an anticipation of his burial.

John 12:1-8

Glory to you, O Lord.

.¹Six days before the Passover Jesus came to Bethany, the home of Lazarus, whom he had raised from the dead. ²There they gave a dinner for him. Martha served, and Lazarus was one of those at the table with him. ³Mary took a pound of costly perfume made of pure nard, anointed Jesus' feet, and wiped them with her hair. The house was filled with the fragrance of the perfume. ⁴But Judas Iscariot, one of his disciples (the one who was about to betray him), said, ⁵"Why was this perfume not sold for three hundred denarii and the money given to the poor?" ⁶(He said this not because he cared about the poor, but because he was a thief; he kept the common purse and used to steal what was put into it.) ⁷Jesus said, "Leave her alone. She bought it so that she might keep it for the day of my burial. ⁸You always have the poor with you, but you do not always have me."

The gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, O Christ.

Thanksgiving and Sending

Leader: Let us pray.

Almighty God, through your Son Jesus Christ You gave the holy apostles many gifts and commanded them to feed your flock. You equip your people with abilities that differ according to the grace given to them, and you call them to various avenues of service.

We give you thanks for the ministry of Pastor Cathleen Morris among the people of God in this place.

(Walk to Baptismal Font) I have baptized people in the name of God and gathered many around these waters to give thanks for the gift of baptism. I now release this ministry into your care.

(Walk to the Altar) I have gathered you around God's table of love and mercy. Never forget, that we are not the hosts at this table, but rather it is Jesus Christ, who always has arms wide open and offers forgiveness, grace, and healing. I now release this ministry into your care.

(Walk out into the center of the congregation) I have shared the highs and lows of life with you. I've been there for births, confirmations, graduations, weddings, and burials. I have visited you in your homes, in hospitals, shared meals, and served the community together. I now release this ministry into your care.

(Walk back to the front) I thank you, people of St. Paul's Lutheran Church, for the love and support shown me during my ministry among you. Please forgive the times I may have fallen short of our expectations for ministry together and I offer my forgiveness to you for the times you fell short as well. For the ministry we have shared, I give you my thanks.

*Benediction

Thanksgiving at the Conclusion of a Call for a Pastor

Leader: Pastor Cathleen Morris, on March 1, 2019, we of St. Paul’s Lutheran Church called you to be pastor in this place: to proclaim God’s word, to baptize and teach, to announce God’s forgiveness, and to preside at the Lord’s Table. With the gospel, you have comforted us in times of sickness and trouble, and at the death of our loved ones. Sharing our joys and sorrows, you have been important to our life together in the church of Jesus Christ, in our service to this community, and in God’s mission to the whole world. As you leave this community of faith, we say farewell, and we pray for God’s blessing.

Leader: A reading from Isaiah: Thus says the Lord, who created you, O Jacob, who formed you, O Israel: Do not fear, for I have redeemed you; I have called you by name, you are mine. When you pass through the waters, I will be with you; and through the rivers, they shall not overwhelm you; when you walk through fire you shall not be burned, and the flame shall not consume you. For I am the Lord your God, the Holy One of Israel, your Savior. (Isaiah 43:1-3)

Leader: When you came to St. Paul’s Lutheran Church, we rejoiced to welcome you into the mission we share as the people of God. In this community, you have come to know and to share in God’s loving purpose for you and for all creation. God has blessed you in this community, and God has blessed us through you.

Leader: We encourage you to continue to receive and share God’s gifts with Bethlehem Lutheran Church and First Presbyterian Church, the Florence Parish, united with us in the body of Christ and the mission we share.

Leader: Let us pray.

Eternal God, we thank you for Pastor Cathleen Morris. Thank you for the time we have shared with her. As she has been a blessing to us, so now send her forth to be a blessing to others.

Leader: Gracious God, we thank you for the work and witness of Pastor Cathleen, who has enriched this congregation and community by sharing her gifts. Now bless and preserve Pastor Cathleen at this time of transition. Day by day, guide her and give her what is needed, friends to cheer her way, and a clear vision of that to which you are now calling her. By your Holy Spirit be present in her pilgrimage, that she may travel with the one who is the way, the truth, and the life, Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen.

Leader: Now let us formally release Pastor Cathleen Morris as our Pastor.

Pastor: I give thanks for the life we have shared in Christ. I now prepare to release my role and responsibilities as your pastor.
